
Training infants, 10% density. Spread = residuals around each lobe's age curve. D: colour = first principal component of the 12 residuals (all lobes moving together); grey = the rest.